About the Author

Leanne Bridgwater is a Creationist, though not in the religious sense. She enjoys finding loose associations and patternations between words, symbology, sound, movement and imagery. Her debut collection of poetry, Confessions of a Cyclist (an epic poem on cycling in a city) is published by Knives Forks and Spoons Press.

In 2015, she was shortlisted for the Melita Hume poetry prize, and was previously shortlisted for the Foyle Young Poets Award.

She graduated from the University of Salford with an MA in Creative Writing. Since then she has been setting up events, delivering creative workshops and continuing her love for drawing.
